Overview

The programme of events, activities and services offered within the Associates Scheme is designed to offer maximum benefit to all participants.

The scheme provides the ideal forum to:

- Promote capabilities,
- Access new technologies,
- Increase awareness,
- Share ideas & best practice,
- Learn new skills,
- Identify research opportunities,
- Make valuable business contacts,
- Become part of an influential community.

The Scheme operates on an annual subscription basis. In order to make the Scheme accessible to all, fees are calculated to ensure value for money is delivered to all participants.

¹ Number of delegates determined from subscription fee. Additional places may be purchased for an additional cost

² Full details to be agreed on a case-by-case basis. Software can be made available at ASRC for the duration of the membership provided it is accessible to Users for trialling. Housing hardware may incur additional installation costs which will be passed to the vendor, and the duration of free housing will be agreed on a case-by-case basis. Vendors of software and hardware can use ASRC as a showroom for the housed product, but use of specific ASRC facilities to achieve this (desk space, HPC, Integration suite, Visualisation Suite etc) may incur additional costs or constitute the use of additional Associate Scheme benefits.

³ Technology trial day is for one user and provides access to all technology installed in ASRC at that time, subject to availability and Vendor's prior consent. Additional places may be purchased. Use of meeting room, visualisation room or integration suite is limited to 10 people. Catering can be provided at an additional cost.

⁴ Sessions can be used for meetings, training or demonstrations for up to 10 people (including hosts from Associate organisation). Catering can be provided at an additional cost.

⁵ External costs (licensing, catering etc) will be passed on at full rate.

⁶ Subject to availability. Call ahead for confirmation.
